

A detailed map of Southern California, including the Los Angeles basin, San Diego, and the Channel Islands. A black arrow points from a box labeled "Project Location" to a specific area on the coast near Malibu and the Santa Monica Mountains. The map shows major highways (Interstates 5, 10, 15, 805, and State Routes 1, 101, 10, 52, 56, 54, 5, 163, 94, 905, 94), cities (Los Angeles, San Diego, San Jose, San Francisco, etc.), and geographical features like the Pacific Ocean, Channel Islands National Marine Sanctuary, and various rivers. The project location is marked on the coast near the border of Los Angeles and Santa Monica counties.
